Dear Tetsoft Conference Attendees:

Please accept my best wishes for a successful software trade and investment mission at the Wynn Resort in Las Vegas. I'm extremely proud that our city is hosting such an important event.

Addressing the challenges of emerging technologies on a global scale requires international cooperation and strategic alliances. Tetsoft is at the forefront of such efforts and is helping realize a vision of increased competition and achievement.

This conference is marked by a bold agenda, addressing such issues as cyber security, logistics solutions, and data management. I'm confident that all involved will leave the event with a greater grasp of the challenges ahead and a wealth of information with which to tackle them.

Thank you again for choosing Las Vegas and the Wynn Resort as the location for this conference, and I wish you all much success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,
